Business

Sales & Disposal of Books, Equipment & Supplies

When equipment, books and materials become worn out, obsolete, surplus, or otherwise unusable in the schools, the Superintendent may authorize their disposal in a manner to the district's best advantage.

Equipment, books, supplies may be traded to vendors to lower the cost of newly acquired goods.

Equipment, books, supplies may not be sold to employees, board members, or town employees.

Any proceeds from disposition of equipment or supplies shall be retained by the Regional Board of Education.

The Board of Education may, upon recommendation of the Superintendent of Schools, authorize the disbursement or destruction of outdated textbooks which are no longer useful to the educational program.

When books, equipment, supplies are sold either to used book vendors or shredders, this money will be retained by the Regional Board. If and when such books, equipment or supplies are given to the PTA or approved school clubs, the group may dispose of them as they wish. Any monies received there from can be retained in the PTA or club account.

Legal Reference: Connecticut General Statutes

10-220 Duties of boards of education.

10-240 Control of schools.

10-241 Powers of school districts.

Policy adopted: May 20, 1997

EASTON PUBLIC SCHOOLS
REDDING PUBLIC SCHOOLS
REGIONAL SCHOOL DISTRICT NO. 9