

Speaker - Alan November

Joel Barlow High School Auditorium
Thursday, January 5th
4-6pm

Co-Sponsored by the Easton and Redding School Community, the Easton Learning Foundation, and the Redding Education Foundation

Alan November is a leading international thought-leader in education technology and recognized as one of the top school leadership consultants and keynote presenters at education conferences worldwide. He began his career as an oceanography teacher and counselor at a reform school for boys in Boston. He has been director of an alternative high school, technology consultant, university lecturer and he works with governments and industry leaders to improve the quality of education.

Audiences enjoy Alan's humor and wit as he pushes the boundaries of how to improve teaching and learning in the 21st Century. His areas of expertise include planning across curriculum, staff development, new school design, digital literacy, student collaboration, community building and leadership development.

Alan was named one of the nation's fifteen most influential thinkers of the decade by Technology and Learning Magazine. In 2001, he was listed one of eight educators to provide leadership into the future by the Eisenhower National Clearinghouse. In 2007 he was selected to speak at the Cisco Public Services Summit during the Nobel Prize Festivities in Stockholm, Sweden. His writing includes numerous articles and two best-selling books, Empowering Students with Technology and Web Literacy for Educators. Alan was co-founder of the Stanford Institute for Educational Leadership Through Technology and is most proud of being selected as one of the original five national Christa McAuliffe Educators. Each summer Alan leads the Building Learning Communities summer conference with world-class presenters and international participants (www.novemberlearning.com/blc).
